

For immediate release

Ooh la la – Farm Pride launches ready-to-use French Style Crepes

In an Australian retail first, one of Australia's largest egg producers, Farm Pride, has launched ready-to-eat French Style Crepes into Coles supermarkets nationally.

The delicious crepes are rectangular-shaped, and ready-to-use for either sweet or savoury dishes, hot or cold.

All you have to do is pour half a cup of hot water onto the crepes and allow them to sit for 30 seconds then fill with some delicious ingredients for a fantastic snack, entrée or dessert.

Why not try hot savoury entrée crepes with prosciutto and melted gorgonzola, or mascarpone with fresh raspberries and a dusting of icing sugar for a quick and easy dessert.

The crepes are also perfect for an after-school snack, just rehydrate them and let the kids choose their own fillings!

Crepes can be prepared and filled up to 24 hour in advance of consumption, or prepared and frozen for up to one month, depending on the filling.

The boxes of eight crepes will be located in the baking-aisle of more than 500 Coles supermarkets across Australia from May 15, RRP $3.99.

For further information contact Melissa Hadley at melissa@propellerpr.com.au or phone 0421 025 047

For more information contact communications director Melissa Hadley on 0421 025 047 or melissa@propellerpr.com.au

Useless egg fact #108: It takes up to four hours to hard boil an ostrich egg.